Carmouche Invites Public to Coffee and Rubber Ducks

Fleming Asks Guests to Pay $10,000 for Picture with Cheney

SHREVEPORT, La – John Fleming has invited guests to pay $10,000 for their picture with Vice President Dick Cheney on Friday. In honor of his visit, Paul Carmouche’s Congressional campaign has invited the public to attend “Coffee with Carmouche” where anyone can come and enjoy coffee and doughnuts with Paul and talk about their issues of concern. The first 25 people through the door will receive a rubber duck, to symbolize the Vice President’s status as a lame duck.

The coffee will take place on Thursday at 8:30 a.m. at Carmouche headquarters, 4847 Line Ave. in Shreveport.

“This campaign is about the people, not the powerful,” Carmouche said. “I will always keep an open door in Congress, and listen to the concerns and needs of my constituents.”

“In tough economic times, it is ironic that Dr. Fleming would host a $10,000 a person fundraiser with the very symbol of the failed policies of the past eight years,” Carmouche campaign spokesman Bert Kaufman said. “Mr. Cheney’s visit underscores just how out of touch and risky Dr. Fleming is for the voters of the 4th Congressional District.”
